

Rights, Aims & Principles to Create a Community Charter

Social events - combats isolation and loneliness

Work as a group towards a common goal

Value – we are important and respected, as is the work we create

Clean beautiful safe space

Drop-in – no pressure, no block booking

Become part of the greater community

Welcome - say hello and smile

Multi-cultural – everyone is welcome and encouraged

All abilities and skills appreciated

Learn together & listen

Evolution – groups have to change to survive, grow and flourish

Respect – everybody is equal and important

No pressure – you can be part of it by just watching

Inclusivity – everyone is welcome

Share our knowledge

Tea and biscuits

Written by Lisette Auton and the Community of MIMA